Info & Tips

For Glenelm kids who love making things and want a supported way to sell their creations in the neighbourhood.

How to prepare

- Give yourself enough time to buy any supplies you need.
- Make your own items. This is for kid crafters, not parents.
- Make enough items to sell during the 4 hours of Sweets n' Seeds. Spring Break is a great time to make a lot of inventory.
- Package your items, if needed.
- Price your items or make a sign with the prices.
- Create a system to track sales.
- Practice talking to customers and making change with cash.
- Promote the sale. Invite your family, neighbours and friends to come and support you.

What to bring

- All your inventory of stuff to sell, including 1 item to donate to the Silent Auction.
- Shelves, display, bins, or other things to display your items.
- Accessories to make your table area interesting or pretty – like lights or tablecloth.
- A 'float' – cash and coins to make change.
- A notebook and pen to track sales.
- A non-microwave, no-allergen lunch you can eat at your table, snacks, water.

On Saturday, May 16

- Arrive at 9:15 a.m. to set up.
- Expect to stay until 2:30 p.m. to clean up.
- Greet your customers, explain how you made your items.
- Be calm and take your time doing the math with sales.
- Thank people for coming and/or buying from you.
- Be kind to the other kid sellers. They are not your competition.
